

Attachment B

Biographical Statement

Mary T. Wynne
6/10/2000

Mary T. Wynne is enrolled in the Rosebud Sioux Indian Tribe. She was raised on a rural reservation in South Dakota. Mary is a graduate of the University of Minnesota Law School and a former Assistant U.S. Attorney for the District of South Dakota, who has practiced in forty-seven numerous Federal, state and tribal courts as a prosecutor, defense attorney and plaintiff's attorney. Ms. Wynne has sat in numerous tribal courts and sat as judge pro-tem for Washington State District Court and municipal court cases. She now works in a law firm in Okanogan, WA, limiting her practice to bankruptcy, family law, Federal Indian law, and tribal judging.

Ms. Wynne is fully familiar with multiple approaches to resolving disputes ranging from the adversarial methodology of mediation, to pure consensus building methods. She offers over twenty years of experience achieving resolution of disputes through consensus-oriented processes.
